(4) Companies incorporated under the Companies Act 1981 or formed under the Limited Liability Company Act 2016, shall be deemed to be not fiscally transparent, subject in each case to an election under subsection (1).

(5) Companies incorporated under the Companies Act 1981 or formed under the Limited Liability Company Act 2016 which are registered under the Segregated Accounts Companies Act 2000 will be regarded as a single entity which is not fiscally transparent, provided that a Bermuda Constituent Entity may make an annual election under this section to treat any segregated accounts within such entity as—

- (a) separate Bermuda Constituent Entities; and
- (b) following an election under paragraph (a) may then further elect to treat any given segregated account as fiscally transparent or not fiscally transparent under subsection (1).

(6) Companies which have registered under the Incorporated Segregated Accounts Act 2019 will be regarded as separate entities that are not fiscally transparent with respect to the company itself and each segregated account, provided that a Bermuda Constituent Entity may elect—

- (a) to treat the company and/or any segregated account as fiscally transparent or not fiscally transparent under subsection (1); or

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

- (b) to treat the company and all of its segregated accounts as one Bermuda Constituent Entity, and may then further elect to treat the resulting Bermuda Constituent Entity as fiscally transparent or not fiscally transparent under subsection (1).

(7) Companies incorporated, formed or organised under the laws of a jurisdiction outside Bermuda which have substantially similar characteristics as segregated accounts companies and incorporated segregated accounts companies will be treated in a similar fashion to those companies as described in subsections (5) and (6), provided that a Bermuda Constituent Entity may also elect under subsection (1) to treat either or both the company and the segregated accounts as fiscally transparent or not fiscally transparent.

(8) A trust governed by the laws of Bermuda shall be deemed to be fiscally transparent to the extent that income of the trust is treated as income of the beneficiary, but shall otherwise be treated as not fiscally transparent, subject to an election under subsection (1).

(9) Subject to subsection (7), an entity, other than a Bermuda Constituent Entity, will be regarded as fiscally transparent, if the jurisdiction in which that entity is located treats the income, expenditure, profit or loss of that entity as if it were derived or incurred by the direct owner of that entity in proportion to its interest in that entity, subject to an election under subsection (1).

(10) Notwithstanding any provision of this Act, the Minister may prescribe entities (whether in Bermuda or in other jurisdictions) that shall be deemed to be fiscally transparent or not fiscally transparent.

PART 4

TAX CREDITS

Foreign tax credits

16 A Bermuda Constituent Entity Group's foreign tax credit for a fiscal year shall be the sum of the allocated foreign taxes for such fiscal year for all Bermuda Constituent Entities comprising the Bermuda Constituent Entity Group, provided that a Bermuda Constituent Entity Group's foreign tax credit may not exceed the amount computed pursuant to section 4(2)(a) for such fiscal year and may not be less than zero.

Adjusted creditable foreign taxes

17 (1) The adjusted creditable foreign taxes of a constituent entity for a fiscal year shall be equal to the current tax expense or benefit accrued in its financial accounting net income or loss with respect to creditable foreign taxes adjusted by—

- (a) adding—
- (i) any creditable foreign taxes accrued as an expense in the profit before taxation in the financial accounts;

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

- (ii) any credit or refund in respect of a qualified refundable tax credit recorded as a reduction in current tax expense in the financial accounting net income or loss; and
 - (iii) any amount of creditable foreign taxes paid during the fiscal year related to an uncertain tax position where that amount has been treated for a prior fiscal year as a reduction to creditable foreign taxes pursuant to paragraph (b)(v);
- (b) subtracting—
- (i) any current tax expense for creditable foreign taxes not expected to be paid within three years of the last day of the fiscal year;
 - (ii) any credit or refund with respect to a non-qualified refundable tax credit that is not recorded as a reduction to current tax expense in the financial accounting net income or loss;
 - (iii) the amount of current tax expense with respect to an item of income excluded from the computation of taxable income or loss;
 - (iv) any amount of creditable foreign taxes refunded or credited (other than qualified refundable tax credits) that were not treated as adjustments to current tax expense; and
 - (v) any current tax expense relating to uncertain tax positions;
- (c) adding or subtracting
- (i) the deferred tax adjustment, as described in subsection (2); and
 - (ii) creditable foreign taxes recorded in equity or other comprehensive income relating to amounts included in the computation of taxable income or loss.

(2) The deferred tax adjustment for a constituent entity for the fiscal year is equal to the deferred tax expense or benefit accrued in its financial accounting net income or loss with respect to creditable foreign taxes for the fiscal year, adjusted as follows—

- (a) to the extent that deferred tax expense or benefit has been accrued in the financial accounts of the constituent entity at an applicable rate in excess of 15% for the fiscal year, such deferred tax expense or benefit shall be recast at 15%;
- (b) a deferred tax asset that has been recorded at a rate lower than 15% may be recast at 15% in the fiscal year such deferred tax asset is recorded, if the taxpayer can demonstrate that the deferred tax asset is attributable to a taxable loss; and the deferred tax adjustment is reduced by the amount that a deferred tax asset is increased due to being recast;
- (c) the following items shall be excluded from the determination of the deferred tax adjustment

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

- (i) the amount of deferred tax expense or benefit with respect to items excluded from the computation of taxable income or loss;
 - (ii) the amount of deferred tax expense or benefit with respect to disallowed accruals and unclaimed accruals;
 - (iii) the impact of a valuation adjustment or accounting recognition adjustment with respect to a deferred tax asset;
 - (iv) the amount of deferred tax expense or benefit arising from a re-measurement with respect to a change in the applicable foreign tax rate provided, however, that the amount of deferred tax expense that has resulted from an increase to the applicable foreign tax rate shall be treated as an adjustment to creditable foreign taxes in the fiscal year in which such amount is paid; and this adjustment shall only be applicable when the deferred tax amount was originally recorded at a rate less than 15% and is limited to an amount that is equal to an increase of deferred tax expense up to such deferred tax expense recast at 15%; and
 - (v) the amount of deferred tax expense or benefit related to the generation and use of tax credits;
- (d) the deferred tax adjustment shall be adjusted as follows—
- (i) increased by the amount of any disallowed accrual or unclaimed accrual paid during the fiscal year; and
 - (ii) reduced by the amount that would be a reduction to the deferred tax adjustment due to recognition of a deferred tax asset for a current year loss, where a deferred tax asset has not been recognised with respect to that loss because the recognition criteria are not met.
- (3) For purposes of this section—
- (a) creditable foreign taxes shall be determined in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations of the taxing foreign jurisdiction provided that, with the exception of Bermuda source income, such determination shall be made prior to consideration of any tax credits that would otherwise be permissible in such foreign jurisdiction with respect to corporate income taxes chargeable pursuant to this Act; and
 - (b) no amount of adjusted creditable foreign taxes may be taken into account more than once.

Allocation of adjusted creditable foreign taxes

18 The allocated creditable foreign taxes of a Bermuda Constituent Entity shall be equal to the adjusted creditable foreign taxes of the Bermuda Constituent Entity as determined in accordance with section 17 and as further modified for the following allocations of adjusted creditable foreign taxes—

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

- (a) to the extent that the Bermuda Constituent Entity is the constituent entity-owner of a tax transparent entity, the adjusted creditable foreign taxes of the tax transparent entity related to taxable income or loss allocated to the Bermuda Constituent Entity pursuant to section 24(3) shall be allocated to the Bermuda Constituent Entity; and
- (b) to the extent that the Bermuda Constituent Entity is a tax transparent entity, the adjusted creditable foreign taxes of the Bermuda Constituent Entity related to taxable income or loss allocated to its constituent entity-owners pursuant to section 23(4) shall be allocated to the constituent entity-owners.

Qualified refundable tax credits

19 (1) The form and criteria for qualified refundable tax credits shall be as prescribed.

(2) The value of a qualified refundable tax credit as determined pursuant to regulations may, subject to its terms and any relevant elections, each as pursuant to relevant regulation, be applied as a tax credit against a Bermuda Constituent Entity Group's liability for tax pursuant to section 4 and accordingly will adjust a Bermuda Constituent Entity Group's liability for corporate income tax.

PART 5

TAXABLE INCOME OR LOSS

Definition of taxable income or loss

20 The taxable income or loss of a Bermuda Constituent Entity shall be determined by—

- (a) computing the financial accounting net income or loss determined for the fiscal year in accordance with section 21 which shall reflect such allocations, exclusions and/or inclusions as are necessary in accordance with this Part 5;
- (b) adjusting the amount in paragraph (a) in accordance with Part 6; and
- (c) applying such further allocations of the adjusted amount determined pursuant to paragraph (b) in accordance with Part 7 as may be required.

Computation of financial accounting net income or loss

21 (1) The financial accounting net income or loss for a Bermuda Constituent Entity that is a Bermuda Tax Resident Entity shall be—

- (a) the net income or loss determined for the Bermuda Constituent Entity in preparing the profit and loss statement in the consolidated financial statements of the ultimate parent entity for the fiscal year; or

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

- (b) at the election of the Bermuda Constituent Entity, the net income or loss determined for the Bermuda Constituent Entity in accordance with an approved financial accounting standard for the fiscal year, provided that—
 - (i) if the use of the approved financial accounting standard results in permanent differences in excess of EUR 1 million from the accounting standard used in the consolidated financial statements of the ultimate parent entity, the treatment of the relevant items under the approved financial accounting standard must be adjusted to conform to the treatment that would apply under the accounting standard used in the consolidated financial statements of the ultimate parent entity; and
 - (ii) if the currency of the net income or loss determined in accordance with an approved financial accounting standard differs from that used in the consolidated financial statements of the ultimate parent entity, then the net income or loss must be converted to the same currency as that used in the consolidated financial statements of the ultimate parent entity by applying the applicable provisions of the financial accounting standard used in preparation of such consolidated financial statements;
 - (iii) the election described in this paragraph (b) shall be a five-year election, adjusted, in either case as set forth in paragraph (a) and (b), in accordance with subsection (2).

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
 - (a) any consolidated adjustments eliminating intra-group transactions are not taken into account in the computation of the financial accounting net income or loss of the Bermuda Constituent Entity;
 - (b) adjustments to income or expense attributable to purchase accounting for an acquired business (irrespective of when the business was acquired) that are reflected in the consolidated accounts of the In Scope MNE Group, rather than the separate accounts of the Bermuda Constituent Entity itself, are not taken into account in the computation of the financial accounting net income or loss of the Bermuda Constituent Entity;
 - (c) in the case of a business combination for which the acquisition date is prior to 1 December 2021 the Bermuda Constituent Entity may use the carrying value reflected in its separate accounts after the application of “push down” accounting, if the financial accounting standard used by the ultimate parent entity of the In Scope MNE Group permits the use of “push down” accounting in the preparation of its consolidated financial statements and the In Scope MNE Group does not have sufficient records to determine its financial accounting net income or loss with reasonable accuracy based on the unadjusted carrying values of the acquired assets and liabilities. A Bermuda Constituent Entity may not take into account “push down” adjustments to the carrying value of assets and liabilities attributable to the purchase of a business if the acquisition date is on or after 1 December 2021;

- (d) items of income and expense, other than those attributable to purchase accounting, that are reflected in the consolidated accounts of the In Scope MNE Group, rather than the separate accounts of the Bermuda Constituent Entity itself, may be taken into account in computing the financial accounting net income or loss of the Bermuda Constituent Entity only to the extent they can be reliably and consistently traced to the Bermuda Constituent Entity; and
- (e) items of income and expense that are reported in other comprehensive income (rather than in the profit and loss statement) are excluded from the computation of financial accounting net income or loss and, with the exception of any adjustment made pursuant to section 27(2)(a), from the computation of taxable income or loss.

(3) The financial accounting net income or loss for a Bermuda Constituent Entity that is a Bermuda Permanent Establishment shall be the amount allocated from the entity described in subsection (4) to the Bermuda Permanent Establishment in accordance with subsection (5).

(4) An entity described in this subsection is—

- (a) the main entity of a Bermuda Permanent Establishment through which the business of the entity is wholly or partly carried out;
- (b) a constituent entity member of an In Scope MNE Group; and
- (c) not a Bermuda Tax Resident Entity, other than a Bermuda Constituent Entity which is regarded as fiscally transparent pursuant to section 15.

(5) The financial accounting net income or loss of an entity described in subsection (4) shall be allocated to a Bermuda Permanent Establishment in an amount equal to—

- (a) the net income or loss—
 - (i) reflected in the separate financial accounts of the Bermuda Permanent Establishment prepared in accordance with an acceptable financial accounting standard, or an approved financial accounting standard subject to the adjustments described in subsection (1)(b)(i) and (ii); or
 - (ii) if the Bermuda Permanent Establishment does not have separate financial accounts which meet the requirements of subparagraph (i), that would have been reflected in the separate financial accounts of the Bermuda Permanent Establishment if prepared on a standalone basis and in accordance with the accounting standard used in the preparation of the consolidated financial accounts of the ultimate parent entity of the In Scope MNE Group;

- (b) adjusted (if necessary) to reflect only the amounts and items of income and expense that would have been attributed to the Bermuda Permanent Establishment in accordance with Article 7 of the OECD Model Tax Convention.
- (6) To the extent that—
- (a) a Bermuda Constituent Entity is treated as a controlled foreign corporation pursuant to sections 957 or 953(c) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code; and
 - (b) a constituent entity-owner of the Bermuda Constituent Entity is a U.S. shareholder, as such term is defined in section 951(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, and owns, within the meaning of section 958(a) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, an ownership interest in the Bermuda Constituent Entity, the Bermuda Constituent Entity may elect to reduce the financial accounting net income or loss determined in accordance with this section, notwithstanding this subsection, by an amount corresponding to the proportionate ownership interest of the constituent entity-owner. An election may only be made pursuant to this subsection for the first fiscal year of the Bermuda Constituent Entity which begins on or after 1 January 2025 and prior to 1 January 2026, and the immediately succeeding year.

Permanent establishments

22 (1) To the extent that a Bermuda Constituent Entity is not a flow-through entity and is the main entity of a permanent establishment through which the business of the Bermuda Constituent Entity is wholly or partly carried out, no portion of the financial accounting net income or loss of the Bermuda Constituent Entity (including any financial accounting net income or loss that is reflected in the separate financial accounts of the permanent establishment, or would have been reflected in the separate financial accounts of the permanent establishment if prepared on a standalone basis and in accordance with the accounting standard used in the preparation of the consolidated financial accounts of the ultimate parent entity), shall be allocated to the permanent establishment unless a branch exemption election has been made with respect to the permanent establishment.

(2) To the extent a branch exemption election has been made by the Bermuda Constituent Entity described in subsection (1) with respect to a permanent establishment described in paragraphs (a) or (b) of the permanent establishment definition in section 2, the Bermuda Constituent Entity's financial accounting net income or loss—

- (a) reflected in the separate financial accounts of the permanent establishment, prepared in accordance with an acceptable financial accounting standard or, if the permanent establishment does not have separate financial accounts;

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

- (b) that would have been reflected in its separate financial accounts if prepared on a standalone basis and in accordance with the accounting standard used in the preparation of the consolidated financial accounts of the ultimate parent entity, shall be allocated to the permanent establishment and shall be excluded from the determination of the amount described in section 21 with respect to the Bermuda Constituent Entity.

(3) The allocation of net income or loss described in subsection (2) shall be adjusted (if necessary) to reflect only the amounts and items of income and expense that are attributable to the permanent establishment in accordance with the applicable tax treaty or domestic law of the jurisdiction where it is located regardless of the amount of income subject to tax and the amount of deductible expenses in that jurisdiction.

(4) To the extent a branch exemption election has been made by the Bermuda Constituent Entity described in subsection (1) with respect to a permanent establishment described in paragraph (c) or (d) of the permanent establishment definition in section 2, the Bermuda Constituent Entity's financial accounting net income or loss shall be allocated to the permanent establishment in an amount equal to the amount determined pursuant to subsection (2), adjusted (if necessary) to reflect only the amounts and items of income and expense that would have been attributed to it in accordance with Article 7 of the OECD Model Tax Convention; financial accounting net income or loss allocated to a permanent establishment in accordance with this subsection shall be excluded from the determination of the amount described in section 21 with respect to the Bermuda Constituent Entity.

Bermuda flow-through entities

23 (1) To the extent that a Bermuda Constituent Entity (other than a Bermuda Permanent Establishment) is regarded as fiscally transparent pursuant to section 15, prior to consideration of section 15(2)—

- (a) the financial accounting net income or loss of the Bermuda Constituent Entity shall be allocated between the Bermuda Constituent Entity and either the owners of the Bermuda Constituent Entity, or one or more permanent establishments with respect to which the Bermuda Constituent Entity is the main entity, in accordance with subsections (2) through (6);
- (b) the Bermuda Constituent Entity shall be regarded as fiscally transparent for a fiscal year to the extent its financial accounting net income or loss has been allocated to its owners or permanent establishments in accordance with paragraph (a), such that the portion allocated to its owners or permanent establishments shall be excluded from the determination of the amount described in section 21 with respect to the Bermuda Constituent Entity; and
- (c) subject to section 38, the Bermuda Constituent Entity shall not be regarded as fiscally transparent for a fiscal year to the extent its financial accounting net income or loss has been allocated to the Bermuda

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

Constituent Entity in accordance with paragraph (a), and the portion allocated to the Bermuda Constituent Entity shall be included in the determination of the amount described in section 21 with respect to the Bermuda Constituent Entity.

(2) To the extent that the Bermuda Constituent Entity described in subsection (1) is—

- (a) not the ultimate parent entity of an In Scope MNE Group; and
- (b) not owned by the ultimate parent entity of an In Scope MNE Group, either directly or through a tax transparent structure, its financial accounting net income or loss shall be allocated to the owners of the Bermuda Constituent Entity in accordance with their ownership interests. This subsection shall only apply to owners that hold their ownership interests in the Bermuda Constituent Entity directly or through a tax transparent structure, and shall not apply to constituent entity-owners of the Bermuda Constituent Entity.

(3) To the extent that the Bermuda Constituent Entity described in subsection (1) is the main entity of a permanent establishment (other than a Bermuda Permanent Establishment) for which a branch exemption election has been made, its financial accounting net income or loss, as adjusted pursuant to the application of subsection (2), shall be allocated to the permanent establishment in accordance with section 22 (excluding section 22(1)).

(4) To the extent that the Bermuda Constituent Entity described in subsection (1) is a tax transparent entity and is not the ultimate parent entity of an In Scope MNE Group, its financial accounting net income or loss, as adjusted pursuant to the application of subsections (2) and (3), shall be allocated to the constituent entity-owners of the Bermuda Constituent Entity in accordance with their ownership interests.

(5) To the extent that the Bermuda Constituent Entity described in subsection (1) is—

- (a) a tax transparent entity that is the ultimate parent entity of the In Scope MNE Group (or would be the ultimate parent entity of such In Scope MNE Group but for the fact that its controlling interests are held by an excluded entity); or
- (b) a reverse hybrid entity, its financial accounting net income or loss, as adjusted pursuant to the application of subsections (2) and (3), shall be included in the determination of the amount described in section 21 with respect to the Bermuda Constituent Entity.

(6) Subsections (4) and (5) shall be applied separately with respect to each ownership interest in the Bermuda Constituent Entity.

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

Non-Bermuda flow-through entities owned by Bermuda Constituent Entities

24 (1) To the extent that a Bermuda Constituent Entity holds an ownership interest in an entity (other than a Bermuda Tax Resident Entity) that is regarded as fiscally transparent pursuant to section 15, prior to consideration of section 15(2)—

- (a) the financial accounting net income or loss of the other entity described in this subsection (1) shall be allocated to the Bermuda Constituent Entity which holds the ownership interest in accordance with subsections (2) and (3); and
- (b) the other entity described in this subsection (1) shall be regarded as fiscally transparent for a fiscal year only to the extent its financial accounting net income or loss has been allocated to the Bermuda Constituent Entity in accordance with paragraph (a), such that the portion allocated to the Bermuda Constituent Entity shall be included in the determination of the amount described in section 21 with respect to the Bermuda Constituent Entity.

(2) To the extent that the entity in which the Bermuda Constituent Entity holds an ownership interest is—

- (a) not the ultimate parent entity of an In Scope MNE Group; and
- (b) not owned by the ultimate parent entity of an In Scope MNE Group, either directly or through a tax transparent structure, the financial accounting net income or loss described in subsection (1)(a) shall be allocated to the Bermuda Constituent Entity in accordance with its ownership interest. This subsection shall only apply if the Bermuda Constituent Entity holds its ownership interests in the other entity described in subsection (1) directly or through a tax transparent structure and shall not apply to the extent that the Bermuda Constituent Entity is a constituent entity-owner of the other entity.

(3) To the extent that the Bermuda Constituent Entity is a constituent entity-owner in the other entity described in subsection (1) and such other entity is a tax transparent entity and is not the ultimate parent entity of an In Scope MNE Group, the financial accounting net income or loss described in subsection (1)(a) shall be allocated to the Bermuda Constituent Entity in accordance with its ownership interests.

25 To the extent that a Bermuda Constituent Entity holds an ownership interest in a Bermuda Tax Resident Entity that is regarded as fiscally transparent pursuant to section 15, the financial accounting net income or loss of the Bermuda Tax Resident Entity shall be allocated to the Bermuda Constituent Entity which holds the ownership interest in accordance with its ownership interest.

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

PART 6

TAXABLE ADJUSTMENTS

General principles applicable to adjustments

26 (1) Qualified refundable tax credits shall be treated as income in the computation of taxable income or loss of a Bermuda Constituent Entity.

(2) Non-qualified refundable tax credits shall not be treated as income in the computation of taxable income or loss of a Bermuda Constituent Entity.

(3) If a Bermuda Constituent Entity has not made an election pursuant to section 33(8), it shall not be eligible to make any election under sections 29 and 34 in respect of periods prior to 1 October 2023.

(4) To the extent that a Bermuda Constituent Entity is the main entity of a permanent establishment (other than a Bermuda Permanent Establishment), any adjustments made by the Bermuda Constituent Entity pursuant to sections 29, 33, 34, and/or 35 shall be reduced to the extent such adjustments are related to amounts reflected in the separate financial accounts described in section 22(2)(a) or (b), as appropriate.

(5) No item of income or loss, including any allocation of an item of income or loss or adjustment to an item of income or loss pursuant to any section of this Act, may be taken into account more than once for purposes of calculating net taxable income or loss of the Bermuda Constituent Entities of an In Scope MNE Group.

Adjustments to financial accounting net income or loss

27 (1) A Bermuda Constituent Entity's financial accounting net income or loss is adjusted by removal of the following items—

- (a) net taxes expense or benefit;
- (b) excluded dividends;
- (c) excluded equity gain or loss;
- (d) gain or loss from the disposition of assets and liabilities excluded under sections 43 and 44;
- (e) asymmetric foreign currency gains or losses;
- (f) policy disallowed expenses.

(2) A Bermuda Constituent Entity's financial accounting net income or loss shall be further adjusted—

- (a) by including the net gain or loss (as increased or decreased by any associated net taxes expense), for the fiscal year in respect of all property, plant and equipment that arises under an accounting method or practice that—

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

- (i) periodically adjusts the carrying value of such property to its fair value;
 - (ii) records the changes in value in other comprehensive income; and
 - (iii) does not subsequently report the gains or losses recorded in other comprehensive income through profit and loss;
- (b) by adjusting for pension expenses by subtracting from the amount of pension liability expense included in the financial accounting net income or loss the amount contributed to a pension fund for the fiscal year and then—
- (i) if the result is a positive number, adding such number to the financial accounting net income or loss; or
 - (ii) if the result is a negative number, subtracting such number (expressed for these purposes as a positive number) to the financial accounting net income or loss.

Prior period errors and changes in accounting principles

28 (1) A Bermuda Constituent Entity's financial accounting net income or loss shall be adjusted for prior period errors and change in accounting principles by adjusting for all changes in the opening equity at the beginning of the fiscal year of a constituent entity attributable to—

- (a) a correction of an error in the determination of financial accounting net income or loss in a previous fiscal year that affected the income or expenses includible in the computation of taxable income or loss for such fiscal year;
- (b) a change in accounting principle or policy that affected income or expenses, gains or losses includible in the computation of taxable income or loss in a previous financial year; or
- (c) a change in the accounting standard used in the financial statements used in the calculation of financial accounting net income or loss pursuant to section 21.

(2) Subject to section 29, the adjustment described in subsection (1) shall be accounted for as follows—

- (a) to the extent the adjustment—
 - (i) relates to a change in the opening equity in a fiscal year which begins on or after the first day of the first fiscal year in which the In Scope MNE Group meets the requirements of section 11(1), subject to section 13, and
 - (ii) results in an increase in taxable income or a decrease in taxable loss, such adjustment must be taken into account in taxable income or loss ratably over the four-fiscal year period beginning with the fiscal year for which the change in opening equity is recognised in the Bermuda Constituent Entity's financial statements used to determine financial accounting net income or loss, provided that if, in any fiscal year, the Bermuda Constituent Entity ceases to engage in the trade or business that is the subject of an adjustment, the Bermuda Constituent Entity must take into account for such fiscal year any portion of the adjustment not taken into account in taxable income or loss in a previous fiscal year;

- (b) in all other cases, such adjustment must be taken into account in full in the fiscal year for which the change in opening equity is recognised in the Bermuda Constituent Entity's financial statements used to determine financial accounting net income or loss.

Adjustments due to IFRS 17 and LDTI

29 (1) Where a Bermuda Constituent Entity implements IFRS 17 or Long Duration Targeted Improvements (LDTI) either in accordance with the acceptable financial accounting standard utilised in the UPE's consolidated financial statements or where it is implemented in financial statements being used for the purposes of the calculation of financial accounting net income or loss, and such implementation gives rise to a change in equity described in section 28(1)(c), a Bermuda Constituent Entity may elect to adjust its taxable income or loss for any cumulative adjustment to retained earnings at the beginning of the current fiscal year that would have affected the amount of taxable income or loss in a previous fiscal year, including for fiscal years preceding the commencement date and such adjustment shall be taken into account ratably over the ten fiscal year period beginning with the fiscal year for which the adjustment is implemented in the Bermuda Constituent Entity's financial statements used to determine its financial accounting net income or loss.

(2) An election pursuant to this section—

- (a) must be made separately for each Bermuda Constituent Entity that implemented IFRS 17 or LDTI;
- (b) does not include any amount not solely relating to adopting IFRS 17 or LDTI; and
- (c) can apply to changes where the financial accounting standard used to determine financial accounting net income or loss adopts new guidance to conform with IFRS 17 or LDTI.

(3) In the case of a Bermuda Constituent Entity implementing IFRS 17 or LDTI in a fiscal year beginning prior to the commencement date, an election under this subsection may be made to the extent the adjustment described in subsection (1) has not reversed as of the commencement date; such adjustment is taken into account ratably over the period beginning with the first fiscal year of the Bermuda Constituent Entity beginning on or after the commencement date and each of the subsequent nine fiscal years.

(4) To the extent that—

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

- (a) the Bermuda Constituent Entity earned taxable income (and did not incur a taxable loss) for the fiscal year, as determined in accordance with section 20 and prior to consideration of any adjustments resulting from the application of this section; and
- (b) the adjustments resulting from the application of subsections (1) and (3), prior to consideration of the limitation described in paragraph (c), would reduce the amount described in paragraph (a) by more than 80%;
- (c) then—
 - (i) the adjustments to taxable income for the fiscal year resulting from the application of subsections (1) and (3) shall be limited to 80% of the amount described in paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) the excess of—
 - (A) the adjustments to taxable income for the fiscal year resulting from the application of subsections (1) and (3); over
 - (B) the amount described in subparagraph (i),shall be included in the determination of the net taxable loss of the Bermuda Constituent Entity for the immediately succeeding Fiscal Year, in accordance with section 6(2)(b)(i).

Stock-based compensation

30 (1) For the purposes of calculating the taxable income or loss of a Bermuda Constituent Entity, the Bermuda Constituent Entity may elect to substitute the amount of stock-based compensation expense recognised in the financial accounts for such fiscal year, with a deduction for stock-based compensation determined in accordance with subsection (2) for a fiscal year.

(2) A deduction shall be allowed for stock-based compensation which has an exercise date during the fiscal year, in an amount equal to the excess of—

- (a) the market value of the stock on the exercise date; over
 - (b) the value of any consideration received in exchange for the stock.
- (3) Irrespective of whether an election is made under subsection (1)—
- (a) stock-based compensation expense may only be deducted in the calculation of taxable income or loss to the extent it can be reliably and consistently traced to the Bermuda Constituent Entity that received the property, use of property, or services for which the stock-based compensation was provided;
 - (b) the stock provided does not need to be stock issued by the Bermuda Constituent Entity that incurred the relevant stock-based compensation expense; and

- (c) a deduction for stock-based compensation expense is not allowed to a Bermuda Constituent Entity that issued the stock used as compensation unless the Bermuda Constituent Entity received the property or services for which the compensation was paid.

(4) Where an election is made under subsection (1), appropriate adjustments shall be made to ensure that stock-based compensation amounts are not deducted more than once in the calculation of taxable income or loss of a Bermuda Constituent Entity in any one or more fiscal years, including as follows—

- (a) in any fiscal year for which the election is in effect, an adjustment shall be made to eliminate any stock-based compensation expense recognised in the financial accounting net income or loss of a Bermuda Constituent Entity for such fiscal year;
- (b) where the election is made in a fiscal year which begins—
 - (i) before the exercise date of one or more particular stock-based compensation transactions; and
 - (ii) subsequent to one or more previous fiscal years in which some or all of the expense was recognised in the financial accounting net income or loss of the Bermuda Constituent Entity with respect to the particular stock-based compensation transactions and in which such expense was not subject to any adjustment in determining taxable income or loss, the Bermuda Constituent Entity must recapture an amount equal to the excess of the cumulative amount deducted in the computation of its taxable income or loss in previous fiscal years over the cumulative amount that would have been deducted if the election had been in effect for those fiscal years.

(5) Where the election is made in a fiscal year which begins before the exercise date of one or more particular stock-based compensation transactions, an adjustment shall be required equal to the lesser of—

- (b) the amount of an opening tax loss carryforward as adjusted pursuant to this Act net of any adjustment made pursuant to section 6(2)(c), for the Bermuda Constituent Entity.

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

(c) subtracting any adjustments made pursuant to section 6(4)(b); with respect to any fiscal years prior to the fiscal year subject to the election in subsection (5).

(7) To the extent the adjustment determined pursuant to subsection (5) exceeds the amount computed in subsection (6), such excess shall be recaptured in the calculation of taxable income or loss for the fiscal year described in subsection (5).

(8) An election under subsection (1) is an annual election and must be applied consistently to the stock-based compensation of all Bermuda Constituent Entities which are members of the same Bermuda Constituent Entity Group.

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

- (b) would have been a Bermuda Tax Resident Entity or Bermuda Permanent Establishment on 30 September 2023, had the provisions of this Act been in effect as of such date, shall be adjusted in accordance with subsections (2) and (3).

(2) The adjustment described in this subsection shall be determined by replacing—

- (a) the carrying values (as adjusted in accordance with section 21(2)(a) through (e)) used in the determination of the net income or loss described in section 21(1)(a) or (b), as applicable for the Bermuda Constituent Entity, with respect to each asset (other than those assets described in subsection (3) or (4)) and liability which—
 - (i) had been recognised by the Bermuda Constituent Entity as of 30 September 2023 in the financial statements prepared in accordance with the accounting standard summarised in section 21(1)(a) or (b), as applicable; or
 - (ii) would have been recognised by the Bermuda Constituent Entity as of 30 September 2023 had financial statements been prepared in accordance with the accounting standard summarised in section 21(1)(a) or (b), as applicable, with

(3) With respect to each identifiable intangible asset which was owned by the Bermuda Constituent Entity on 30 September 2023—

- (a) for each of the first ten fiscal years of the Bermuda Constituent Entity beginning on or after 1 January 2025, to the extent such identifiable intangible asset was held by the Bermuda Constituent Entity at the end of such fiscal year, taxable income or loss shall be increased or decreased, as applicable, by 10% of the amount computed by—

 - (B) would have been recognised by the Bermuda Constituent Entity as of 30 September 2023 had financial statements been prepared in accordance with the accounting standard summarised in Section 21(1)(a) or (b), as applicable; and

- (b) to the extent the Bermuda Constituent Entity disposes of such identifiable intangible asset, in whole or in part, taxable income or loss shall be increased or decreased by the negative or positive amount, respectively, computed by—

 - (b) the adjustments resulting from the application of subsections (2) and (3), prior to consideration of the limitation described in paragraph (c), would reduce the amount described in paragraph (a) by more than 80%;
 - (c) then—
 - (i) the adjustments to taxable income for the fiscal year resulting from the application of subsections (2) and (3) shall be limited to 80% of the amount described in paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) the excess of—
 - (A) the adjustments to taxable income for the fiscal year resulting from the application of subsections (2) and (3), over
 - (B) the amount described in subparagraph (i),shall be included in the determination of the net taxable loss of the Bermuda Constituent Entity for the immediately succeeding fiscal year, in accordance with section 6(2)(b)(i).
- (6) To the extent that a Bermuda Constituent Entity would have been described in subsection (1) but for the fact that the MNE Group of which the Bermuda Constituent Entity was a member—

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

- (b) did not include at least one entity or permanent establishment that was not located in the jurisdiction of the ultimate parent entity, during the first fiscal year of the Bermuda Constituent Entity which begins on or after 1 January 2025, then the adjustments described in subsections (2) and (3) shall be applied in any subsequent fiscal years for which the Bermuda Constituent Entity is a constituent entity of an In Scope MNE Group.

(7) To the extent that a Bermuda Constituent Entity would have been described in subsection (1) but for the application of section 13, the adjustments summarised in subsections (2) and (3) shall be applied in those fiscal years of the Bermuda Constituent Entity in which the provisions of section 13 no longer apply (whether due to the failure of the In Scope MNE Group to meet the requirements of section 13(1) or due to the expiration of the time period summarised in section 13(2)).

(8) A Bermuda Constituent Entity may elect that the provisions of this section shall not apply.

Matching adjustments

34 (1) Where a Bermuda Constituent Entity has entered into a funds withheld or modified co-insurance contract as the assuming company where the funds withheld asset is accounted for at fair value in the determination of financial accounting net income or loss, the Bermuda Constituent Entity may elect to adjust taxable income or loss to exclude unrealised gains or losses on the funds withheld asset, except to the extent the Bermuda Constituent Entity has elected to account for the overall contract, including the funds withheld asset and insurance liabilities, at fair value through financial accounting net income or loss; however, the exclusion under this subsection will be reduced to the extent that the assuming company's funds withheld asset is offset and changes in unrealised gain or loss in the determination of financial accounting net income or loss are reduced as a result of accounting for a retrocession of the reinsured risk.

(2) Where a Bermuda Constituent Entity has entered into a funds withheld or modified co-insurance contract as the ceding company where the funds withheld liability is accounted for at fair value in the determination of financial accounting net income or loss, the Bermuda Constituent Entity may elect to adjust taxable income or loss to exclude unrealised gains or losses on the funds withheld liability to the extent that the unrealised gains or losses on the corresponding funds withheld assets are not accounted for through financial accounting net income or loss.

(3) Elections made under this section are annual elections.

(4) Subject to section 26, the election under subsection (1) may be made for any or all reinsurance agreements either prospectively from the beginning of any fiscal year commencing on or after 1 January 2025, or with retrospective effect if made for the first fiscal year which begins on or after 1 January 2025 (and prior to 1 January 2026) provided—

- (a) if the Bermuda Constituent Entity does not make an election pursuant to section 33(8), the election under this section cannot apply to any period

prior to 1 October 2023 and the tax base cost of the funds withheld asset or liability will be adjusted in accordance with section 33(2); or

- (b) where the election is made prospectively, for the purposes of calculating the unrealised gain or loss the tax base cost will be the fair value of the funds withheld asset or liability as at the date from which the election applies.

(5) Where an election is revoked for a fiscal year subsequent to the fiscal year beginning on or after the commencement date, taxable income or loss must be adjusted to include the cumulative fair value gain or loss that has previously been excluded from taxable income or loss, including any tax loss carryforward, as a result of an election under this section.

(6) The Minister may prescribe additional accounting mismatches which may be adjusted through a matching election.

Realisation principle election

35 (1) With respect to assets and liabilities that are subject to fair value or impairment accounting in the consolidated financial statements, a Bermuda Constituent Entity may elect to determine gains and losses using the realisation principle for purposes of computing taxable income or loss.

(2) The electing Bermuda Constituent Entity may specify which of its assets and liabilities such election shall apply to, provided that the election shall not apply to an asset or liability to the extent that an adjustment has been made pursuant to section 34 with respect to such asset or liability.

(3) Under an election made pursuant to this section—

- (a) all gains or losses attributable to fair value or impairment accounting with respect to an asset or liability shall be excluded from the computation of taxable income or loss;
- (b) the carrying value of an asset or liability for purposes of determining gain or loss shall be its carrying value adjusted in accordance with section 33(2) at the later of—
 - (i) the date when the asset was acquired or liability is incurred; or
 - (ii) the beginning of the year for which the election was made;
- (c) if the election is revoked, the taxable income or loss of the Bermuda Constituent Entity is adjusted by the difference at the beginning of the revocation year between the fair value of the asset or liability and the carrying value of the asset or liability, adjusted in accordance with section 33(2) if applicable.

(4) An election pursuant to this section is an annual election.

(6) The costs incurred by a Bermuda Constituent Entity that are directly attributable to its international shipping activities listed in subsection (3) and the costs directly attributable to its qualified ancillary activities listed in subsection (4)–

(5) The election in subsection (4) is an annual election and is limited to transactions between Bermuda Constituent Entities (other than investment entities) that are members of the same Bermuda Constituent Entity Group.

PART 7

 - (b) the nominal rate is the statutory rate applicable to the holder on its share of the Bermuda Constituent Entity's income; if the holder is subject to graduated rates, the nominal rate is the highest rate applicable to the holder determined as if its share of the Bermuda Constituent Entity's taxable income were its total taxable income.
- (4) The taxable loss, if any, described in subsection (1)(a) shall be allocated to an owner of the Bermuda Constituent Entity in accordance with its ownership interest, except to the extent that the holder of the ownership interests is not allowed to use the loss in computing their separate taxable income.
- (5) Subsections (2) through (4) shall apply to a permanent establishment through which a Bermuda Constituent Entity described in subsection (1) wholly or partly carries out its business; or through which the business of a tax transparent entity is wholly or partly carried out if the ownership interest of a Bermuda Constituent Entity described in subsection (1) in that tax transparent entity is held directly or through a tax transparent structure.

 - (b) the local creditable tax gross-up is the amount of any taxes incurred by the investment entity or insurance investment entity which would be considered adjusted creditable foreign taxes if incurred directly by the Bermuda Constituent Entity related to the investment entity's or insurance investment entity's taxable income distributed to the Bermuda Constituent Entity.
- (4) An election under this section is a five-year election.

PART 8

Qualifying reorganisation

43 If the disposition or acquisition of assets and liabilities is part of a qualifying reorganisation, section 42 shall not apply and the disposing Bermuda Constituent Entity will exclude any gain or loss on the disposition from the computation of its taxable income or loss and an acquiring Bermuda Constituent Entity will determine its taxable

CORPORATE INCOME TAX ACT 2023

(2) At the election of the Bermuda Constituent Entity that is a member of an In Scope MNE Group that transfers a direct or indirect controlling interest in a Bermuda Constituent Entity, the Bermuda Constituent Entity may treat the transfer of the controlling interest as a transfer of its assets and liabilities such that the Bermuda Constituent Entity shall—

- (a) determine its taxable income or loss in the year of transfer of the controlling interest including a deemed gain or loss on the disposition of its assets and liabilities equal to the difference between the consideration received for the controlling interest and the carrying value of the assets and liabilities immediately before the transfer of the controlling interest (such deemed gain or loss to be allocated to the portion of the acquisition year when the controlling interest in the Bermuda Constituent Entity was held by the In Scope MNE Group that transferred the controlling income); and
